Maharishi's Message for Students Maharishi Speaks to Students - The preface

Here is the formula for students to gain mastery over Natural Law and make the nation invincible.

-Maharishi

Maharishi Speaks to Students has been compiled as a reference text to complement Maharishi Vedic University's 'Course for students'. Contained in four volumes with a total of twenty different themes.

These main points are from Maharishi's lectures to students around the world from 1970 to 1986. It will be interesting to the reader to know that in the beginning of the Movement Maharishi gave out the knowledge of life in terms of consciousness in terms of the experience of consciousness through Transcendental Meditation bringing to light the seven states of consciousness, and then created a new science, the Science of Creative Intelligence, in order to satisfy the intellect and provide a systematic understanding of the nature of consciousness, and a scientific basis to the experience of consciousness.

Scientific research on the physiological, psychological, sociological, and environmental effects of Transcendental Meditation further substantiated Transcendental Meditation and the Science of Creative Intelligence and presented an authentic record of reliability of experience and understanding of consciousness, the Ultimate Reality.

Maharishi's Science of Creative Intelligence was recognised as an inter disciplinary study, and the study of every discipline of modern science was connected to Maharishi's Science of Creative Intelligence on the ground of the practical experience of Transcendental Consciousness the field of pure Creative Intelligence.

Having explained the experience and the effects of Transcendental Meditation in terms of the principles of different disciplines of modern science, and having seen the results of Transcendental Meditation documented by scientific research in all areas of life (in the fields of individual consciousness and collective consciousness); having substantiated his teaching of Transcendental Meditation from the principles and experimental technology of different disciplines of modern science, Maharishi wanted to support and give authenticity to the knowledge of life that he was teaching from the subjective approach of consciousness available in the Vedic Literature. For this purpose he organised the centuries old, scattered Vedic Literature as the literature of a perfect science—Maharishi's Vedic Science—the science and technology of consciousness, the Self of everyone the science and technology of Veda the science and technology of knowledge the science and technology of knower, knowing, and known the science and technology of Samhita of Rishi, Devata, Chhandas the science and technology of Natural Law the source, course and goal of all creation.

Having achieved this, Maharishi thought of perpetuating this beautiful, holistic science of life and started to establish Vedic Universities and to introduce his Vedic Science on all levels of education in many countries throughout the world. Students around the world will enjoy, in Maharishi's own words the 'Definition and Scope' of his Vedic Science in the inaugural publication of Maharishi Vedic University in Madhya Pradesh: Inauguration of Maharishi Mahesh Yogi Vedic Vishwavidyalaya (Maharishi Vedic University) Vijaya Dashmi 1995.

Maharishi Speaks to Students

Introduction

The courses of Maharishi Vedic University are the courses on my Vedic Science and Technology, which is the Science and Technology of Consciousness.

Consciousness is the most basic element in creation; therefore the study of consciousness and research in consciousness, which is offered by the traditional Vedic Literature, gives the student the ability to do anything and achieve anything with the support of the evolutionary power of Natural Law.

My Vedic Science and Technology, being the Science and Technology of Consciousness, is the science and technology of Natural Law. Natural Law is the most fundamental element at the basis of all manifest creation. Therefore, study of consciousness and research in consciousness harnesses the full creative potential of Natural Law in individual awareness, and this enlivenment of the potential of creativity of the human mind spontaneously applies the evolutionary of Natural Law to glorify life to blossom in its full creativity, and actualizes perfection in all areas of human concern.

Natural Law is that which administers the entire infinite diversity of the universe with perfect orderliness. When this nourishing and evolutionary potential of Natural Law is enlivened in human awareness, nothing can remain impossible to any individual and to any nation.

Nothing remains difficult for anyone through the support of Nature. Everything is possible for anyone through the courses on my Vedic Science and Technology offered by Maharishi Vedic University.

The guiding principle of Maharishi Vedic University courses is that every course fulfils the grand purpose of all courses from its specific angle. The principle is that, "part expresses the whole and the whole is present in every part". This is because every aspect of Vedic Literature brings out a specific quality of consciousness, and through the unfoldment of that quality at the transcendental level of consciousness, enlivens the total potential of consciousness in the awareness of the student. Every course enlivens all levels of knowledge until the ultimate level is awakened in the awareness of the student.

This enlivenment of complete knowledge and its infinite organizing power in the awareness of every student makes him competent to achieve anything.

The unique theme of course design fulfils the goal of education-unfoldment of the potential of all knowledge and its infinite organizing power latent in everyone. All the courses of Maharishi Vedic University comprise the knowledge of both my Vedic Science and Vedic Technologies.

The courses of Maharishi Vedic University with reference to my Vedic Science are designed on the basis of the ancient Vedic Literature, and the Vedic Literature with reference to all disciplines of modern science.

This special feature of course design makes the study of science through the Vedic Literature include within its fold the study of Science through different disciplines of modern science. It is this that really offers the study of the whole range of science, and develops in the student the ability to spontaneously enjoy the "fruit of all knowledge" the fruit of science based education the ability to systematically know anything, do anything, and accomplish anything.

This offers all advantages of the analytical and synthetical systems of education and develops the ability to comprehend and also utilize the infinite organizing power of pure knowledge.

The courses of Maharishi Vedic University with reference to my Vedic Technology are designed to enliven pure knowledge and its infinite organizing power, which is latent in the awareness, or consciousness, of the student.

The Vedic Literature displays the qualities of consciousness. The singularity of consciousness naturally expresses the total potential of its unbounded nature at the transcendental level, at the unmanifest basis of all creation in the ocean of pure consciousness, from where all other expressed values are nourished. From this level of self-referral consciousness the sequentially evolving mechanics of creation organize the evolutionary processes in the ever-expanding universe.

Shruti - unmanifest sound of the self interacting dynamics of consciousness that constitutes the structure of Natural Law.

The sequential evolution of Shruti- unmanifest sound available as the stream of the sequentially evolving Vedic Literature displays the eternal sequential mechanics of transformation of consciousness within the ocean of consciousness.

The eternal continuum of this theme of transformation renders the stages of evolution of consciousness, first into the Shruti - unmanifest sound, अ (A), the first syllable of RK Veda which sequentially evolves from the eternally silent field of pure consciousness into the sequentially evolving mechanics of transformation, promoting the emergence of different sound values in the stream of the sequential development of the Vedic Literature.

Then from sound to form, from form to phenomena, this process of evolution of consciousness, evolution of life, continues on and on, eternally sustained by the continuum of the Shruti - unmanifest sound-which sustains the orderly evolution of its expressions, first into speech and then into material creation, and eternally maintains the orderly evolution of the ever-expanding universe.

The student of Maharishi Vedic University, enlivening these mechanics of transformation in his own self-referral consciousness through my Vedic Technology-the Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi Programme including Yogic Flying-and reading the Vedic Literature in sequence, gains the ability to efficiently handle all the diversified values of Natural Law administering the different levels of creation.

My Technology of Consciousness first trains the human mind to become familiar with the different levels of mechanics of transformation, starting from the sensory level of perception. The mind becomes familiar with all the mechanics of transformation from the sensory level to the deepest level of Shruti-the unmanifest sound, the Veda-in the self-referral state of consciousness.

The programme for the conscious mind to consciously comprehend and become familiar with all the different levels of mechanics of transformation, from the sensory level to the self-referral level all levels from diversity to singularity is the programme for the conscious mind to become so familiar with the total range of the mechanics of transformation that all the fields of Natural Law, from their unified state to their most evolved, diversified state in administering the universe, are available to the student through these courses.

This familiarity of the conscious mind with the total potential of its own nature all levels of Natural Law is that one theme of maintaining liveliness of the entire creative intelligence of consciousness. This leads to spontaneous right action all thought and action spontaneously proceeding in the right direction, the direction of sequential evolution.

At this point the comprehension and culture of the student's mind is so profound that he is incapable of making any mistake.

This is that technology of consciousness for accomplishing anything which is offered to every student of Maharishi Vedic University, primarily on the basis of the programme of full awakening of the student's consciousness, and secondarily (but simultaneously), on the basis of the power of the mechanics of transformation, power of evolution, as it is available in different degrees in the whole stream of the Vedic Literature.

This theme of developing Vedic Technology, the technology of pure knowledge, the technology of consciousness, is the only approach to perfection in the most natural way. My courses on Vedic Science and Technology have simply opened a door to perfection for all mankind.

The courses on my Vedic Science and Technology are beautifully complete in that the techniques of inspiring Natural Law to accomplish any desired result have their authenticity in the Vedic Literature and also enjoy authenticity from the perspective of modern science, in as far as modern science has provided proof of the Ultimate Reality as the field of consciousness as the Unified Field of Natural Law.

My Vedic Technology is available in Transcendental Meditation, which was introduced to the world in 1957, and in the advanced stages of Transcendental Meditation, the TM-Sidhi Programme, which was introduced in 1975.

My Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi Programme constitute the foundation of my Vedic Science and Technology from the point of view of ancient Vedic Science. From the angle of modern science these programmes are called the Maharishi Technology of the Unified Field, because it is these programmes which have brought the direct experience of the Unified Field Samhita level of consciousness and have thus provided the means to utilize the Unified Field in the practicalities of daily life.

Therefore whatever we say - "Maharishi's Vedic Technology" or "Maharishi's Technology of the Unified Field" or "Maharishi's Science of Creative Intelligence" - the technology is the same; it is the technology of consciousness.

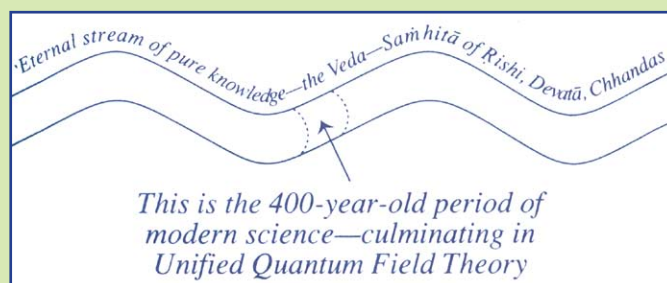

The courses on my Vedic Technology offer the key to unlock the total potential of organising power inherent in knowledge from the combined standpoint of Vedic Science and modern science.

The unification of these ancient and modern approaches is expressed by Vedic Science in one verse, the Richo Akshare verse of RK Veda, which comprehends total knowledge in its unified state and in its diversified values. My Vedic Science gives a detailed analysis of the profound significance of this verse, both for understanding the mechanics of creation and for its practical value of raising life to its supreme level of fulfilment.

My Transcendental Meditation enjoys its perpetual authenticity in the ancient Vedic Literature, and this perpetual authenticity of the Vedic approach to perfect education has been verified through the four hundred year old objective approach of modern science, with its characteristic experimental technologies, which has now culminated in Unified Quantum Field Theory.

This will be clear by (1) understanding that the Samhita of Rishi, Devata, Chhandas is self-referral consciousness (in Vedic Technology, verification is built into the technology itself); and (2) by investigating into the field of consciousness, the self-referral, self-interacting Unified Field of Natural Law, as discovered in Unified Field Theory of modern science—in particular, Heterotic Superstring Theory.

This is how the courses of Maharishi Vedic University offer complete knowledge for full enlightenment with absolute authenticity from both approaches ancient and modern so they present an absolute, perfect system of education for all time.

Both approaches verify that the total potential of human creativity can now be fully unfolded through the courses of Maharishi Vedic University, which can be classified as the absolute approach to develop the infinite creative potential of any individual and any nation.

My perception of modern science finds all disciplines of modern science in the Richo Akshare verse of RK Veda the expression of the self-referral consciousness of everyone; and my perception of Vedic Science finds all disciplines of ancient Vedic Science in the self-referral consciousness of everyone.

This perception of total knowledge fulfilled through both approaches ancient and modern completely satisfies intellectual enquiry about the Ultimate Reality, and fulfils the quest for total knowledge. This field of total knowledge is enlivened and brought to direct experience through my Vedic Technology Transcendental Meditation and the TM-Sidhi Programme including Yogic Flying.

Intellectual understanding and direct experience of the Ultimate Reality and the resultant "fruit of all knowledge" is the offer of the courses of Maharishi Vedic University.

Courses on my Vedic Science and Technology unfold the reality from within the consciousness of everyone, revealing that outside in the manifest creation is the expression of one's own inner value of life the field of consciousness (tree is the expression of seed).

Courses on my Vedic Science and Technology reveal that the outer manifest creation has its basis in the inner reality of intelligence in everyone and everything.

A very special feature of Maharishi Vedic University, which is not available in any university, is that the student realizes that he himself is the embodiment of all knowledge. He realizes that his Self-expresses itself as his intellect, his intellect expresses itself as his mind, his mind expresses itself as his senses, his senses express themselves into all fields of his perception

He realizes that the sequence of evolution starts from himself and covers the whole range of diverse creation; and when through the vision of all disciplines of modern science he realizes the common basis of all disciplines in his own pure intelligence, then he finds himself as the goal of all scientific pursuits of knowledge. He ceases to be a seeker of knowledge; he rises to be the embodiment of all knowledge. This ability of man is far beyond the reach of any existing university in the world.

Throughout the world the notion exists that the pursuit of knowledge continues throughout life due to the inability of any university to impart complete knowledge and bring fulfilment to the pursuit of knowledge.

The courses of Maharishi Vedic University very naturally lead the student to realize that the entire field of knowledge and its infinite organising power is really centred in himself the whole field of knowledge diverges from within himself and converges to his Self within.

He finds that the theme of imparting total knowledge in Maharishi Vedic University organises the emergence of all knowledge from within and then shows all streams of diversified knowledge converging onto the Self.

This theme of imparting total knowledge really covers the entire field of knowledge from whole to part-from part to whole; from seed to tree from tree to seed; from I to my-from my to I; from innermost to outermost-from outermost to innermost.

The course on my Vedic Science and Technology cover both sides of the path of knowledge from point to infinity and back from infinity to point. The structure of pure knowledge, the Veda, in the Mandala form (circle) illustrates not only the structure of pure knowledge, but also the path to it.

My Vedic Science and my cognition of the complete value of knowledge and its path are beautifully available in the courses of my Vedic Science available in Maharishi Vedic University. With the establishment of Maharishi Vedic University in different countries, the existing universities will naturally be inspired to make the courses on my Vedic Science available to their students.

This is going to be the fulfilment of all the education authorities in the world who are already dissatisfied with their educational system and the quality of dissatisfied youth that it is producing, and are eagerly searching for a more satisfactory system of education.

The ancient eternal record of Vedic Technology unfolds the full creative potential of individual life, and this technology has proven to be the technology to experientially validate the Ultimate Reality understood through the terminology of modern science, the terminology of Quantum Field Theory.

When the courses of Maharishi Vedic University are available in all universities in the world, the intelligentsia of the world will breathe perfection in their private and professional lives. This will raise education to perfection, the ground for Heaven on Earth.

महर्षि ज्योतिष की दृष्टि में मार्च माह

पण्डित हरिशरण मिश्र, (ज्योतिषाचार्य)

मार्च माह फाल्गुन शुक्ल अष्टमी दिन गुरुवार से प्रारम्भ होकर चैत्र शुक्ल अष्टमी दिन शनिवार पर्यन्त रहेगा। इस माह में पड़ने वाले विशिष्ट पर्व एवं त्यौहारों का महात्म्य निम्नांकित है।

१. आमलकी एकादशी- फाल्गुन शुक्ल पक्ष की एकादशी को आमलकी एकादशी कहते हैं। आंवले के वृक्ष में भगवान का निवास होने के कारण इसी के नीचे भगवान विष्णु का पूजन करना चाहिये। इस एकादशी को व्रत रखकर आंवले का उबटन आंवला मिश्रित जल से स्नान, आंवला का पूजन, आंवला मिश्रित भोजन तथा आंवले का दान करना चाहिये।

२. होलिका पूजन एवं होलिका दहन- हमारे देश में दीपावली के समान ही यह त्यौहार सबसे अधिक धूमधाम और सर्वाधिक आनंद एवं उल्लास के साथ मनाया जाता है। यद्यपि समय के परिवर्तन एवं शिक्षा के प्रचार-प्रसार ने इसके साथ जुड़ी रंगों की बहार और गायन-वादन के कार्यक्रमों को काफी कम कर दिया है। फिर भी यह हमारा ऐसा सामाजिक पर्व है, जिसमें अमीर-गरीब, स्त्री-पुरुष, बालक-वृद्ध एवं जाति-पाति की दीवारें टूट जाती हैं। यद्यपि होलिका दहन ही नहीं अपितु होलिका पूजन और होली के लिये गोबर की कण्डी की मालायें बनाना धार्मिक कृत्य है। महिलायें इस दिन व्रत भी रखती हैं।

होली फाल्गुन मास की पूर्णिमा की रात्रि में जलायी जाती है। ज्योतिष की दृष्टि में भद्रा में होली जलाना वर्जित है। यही कारण है कि किसी-किसी वर्ष यह पर्व शाम को मनाया जाता है तथा कभी-कभी रात्रि 2 बजे के आस-पास होलिका का दहन किया जाता है।

किन्तु महिलाओं द्वारा सामूहिक होली पूजन दिन में दोपहर के बाद शाम तक ही की जाती है। महिलायें एक पात्र में जल, अक्षत, रोली, मौली तागा, अबीर, गुलाल एवं पकवान के सहित होलिका माई का पूजन करती हैं।

३. धूलिका पर्व- चैत्र कृष्ण पक्ष प्रतिपदा अर्थात् फाल्गुन पूर्णिमा के दूसरे दिन धूलिका पर्व मनाया जाता है। इस दिन होली की अवशिष्ट भस्म को पूरे शरीर में लगाना चाहिये। तथा अपने इष्टमित्रों को भी भस्म का तिलक लगा कर अबीर-गुलाल रंग, कुमकुम आदि की वर्षा करनी चाहिये। इससे चर्म रोगों से निजात मिलती है। ऐसा शास्त्रों का मन्तव्य है।

इस माह (मार्च) में पड़ने वाले व्रत-पर्व एवं त्यौहारों की तालिका इस प्रकार है-
